for the Citizen-Centric Report

Page 1: Information About the Community

What are we chartered (required) to do ?

- Vision Statement
 - Strategic Goals
 - How the Entity is Organized/ Operates
 - Demographics (per capita income, unemployment rates, number of government workers, people—
- coming & going, firms— coming and going
- Include a brief Table of Contents on Page 1 so readers can see what is included on subsequent pages.

Note

All information presented should be done on a per capita basis. This will be more meaningful to each individual citizen.

Page 2: How Are We Doing—A Performance Report on Key Missions and Service

Governments are encouraged to obtain input from citizens on what measures they would like to see included in advance of producing this report. Report on nonfinancial outcomes (not inputs or outputs) for three or four of the government's key missions or services of most relevance to citizens. This should include comparisons to past years' outcomes, to articulated targets, where applicable, and to similar jurisdictions where possible. Missions and services and their associated outcome measures might include some of the following:

Mission or Service	Possible Outcome Measures
Public safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Crimes committed per 100,000 • Percentage of crimes cleared, fire-related deaths, fire related property loss
Schools	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fraction of students performing at grade level on standardized test, high school graduation rate

AGA—Advancing Government Accountability

AGA's initiative to encourage governments to provide meaningful and understandable information about the financial condition and performance of the government to its citizens has culminated in a four page citizen centric report. Such a report would ultimately answer the question, "Are we better off today than we were last year?"

This template lays out what should be included on each of the four pages. Governments are encouraged to produce such a report to show accountability to its citizens. Make use of the Design Guidelines document for guidance on design, readability and distribution of your report.

Contact Susan Fritzlen at sfritzlen@agacgm.org and/or 800.AGA.7211 with any questions.
