

Elois W. Adair is the Project Manager for the new Governmentwide Financial Report System (GFRS) in Governmentwide Accounting at the Financial Management Service (FMS) in the Department of the Treasury. She has worked at FMS since May 2001. Elois is responsible for the planning, design, development, testing, training, and implementation of GFRS.

Elois has been a Systems Accountant for thirteen years. She had spent eleven years at the General Services Administration in the financial systems development and maintenance area.

Elois has a B.S. degree in Business Management and M.S. degree in Management Information Systems from the University of Maryland University College.