

Doris A. Chew

Doris A. Chew is the Assistant Executive Director of the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program (JFMIP). JFMIP is a joint undertaking of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, General Accounting Office (GAO), Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and Office of Personnel Management (OPM). The Program works with all Federal agencies to improve financial management policies and practices in the public sector. She plans and manages various activities and projects in financial management, including financial systems, human capital issues, communication and outreach. She also promotes the communication of financial management improvements through educational events, and meetings with officials at Federal agencies and organizations in the private sector.

She has worked on several initiatives for the U.S. Chief Financial Officers (CFO) Council. As a member of the Human Capital Committee, she has developed and revised many of the core competency documents for financial management personnel. Ms. Chew has also worked with the CFO Council's Systems and E-Government Committee on the development of the strategy document for building the workforce capacity for implementing financial management systems and developed the core competencies for project managers implementing financial systems. She is the project manager for a study on the Federal financial work force of the future.

She has mentored many individuals who have developmental rotational assignments at the JFMIP over the past few years. Prior to JFMIP, Ms. Chew worked as a system accountant and supervisory accountant at the Department of the Treasury. She received a B.S. in accounting and MBA in financial management from the University of Maryland, College Park. She is a certified public accountant (CPA) and a certified government financial manager (CGFM). She is a member of the Greater Washington Society of CPAs, Association of Government Accountants, American Association for Budget & Program Analysis, and American Institute of CPAs.
