

C'Anne Daugherty, CPA, CIA
Assistant City Auditor, City of Austin, Texas

C'Anne has 35 years experience in designing and delivering training and 25 years experience in project management. The last 11 1/2 years of both have been applied in the field of governmental auditing in the Office of the City Auditor, Austin, Texas. In her current assignment as Assistant City Auditor, she participates in the strategic and day to day management of the Audit Office. Her main responsibility is to train and supervise project managers.

The City Auditor's Office in Austin has been instrumental in bringing performance measurement to all areas of the City's service delivery. C'Anne has been directly involved in implementing a corporate-wide Management for Results initiative which aligns financial information and performance measurement to departmental goals and objectives.

C'Anne has Masters' degrees in English and Business Administration and hold professional certifications in Public Accounting (CPA) and internal Auditing (CIA).