

Larry J. Eisenhart

Larry J. Eisenhart is currently a senior manager with KPMG LLP in the Washington D.C. office. He retired from Federal Government in May 2003. Prior to his retirement he was the Department of State Deputy Assistant Secretary for Global Financial Services and Deputy Chief Financial Officer from September 1991 to May 2003.

Mr. Eisenhart was the Acting Assistant Secretary for Financial Management and Policy and Chief Financial Officer from January 2001 to January 2002.

Mr. Eisenhart started his Federal career in 1972 at the General Services Administration (GSA). He has held senior positions in Financial Management at four Federal agencies and has received numerous Federal financial management awards.

Mr. Eisenhart earned a BS degree in Business Administration from Delaware Valley College. He holds a CPA certificate (currently inactive) in Virginia and is a Certified Government Financial Manager. Mr. Eisenhart has authored several articles on Federal Financial Management. He is married to Cynthia Hughes and has two children.