

John E. Benoit, Jr.
Director, Governmentwide Accounting Modernization Project

John E. Benoit, Jr. is the Director of the Governmentwide Accounting Modernization Project in Information Resources, at the Financial Management Service (FMS) in the Department of the Treasury. He has held that position since April 2002. In this position, John is responsible for the overall direction of the Project.

John has been a Federal Government employee since 1979, the majority of his Government experience has been with FMS. He has worked 11 years in Governmentwide Central Accounting (Accounting Operations and Systems Development), six years in Agency Administrative Accounting (Agency Services and HUD), and six years in Debt Accounting and Collection and Development Manager of Debt Collection Systems (U.S. Courts and FMS).

John's accomplishments include; serving as a principal responsible for the development of GOALS, serving as the principal architect of STAR, and he was a founding member of Agency Services' Administrative Accounting Cross-Servicing.

John is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). He is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, with a Bachelor of Science in Business, majoring in Accounting and Finance, and minoring in Marketing. He holds a Masters of Business Administration in Personnel Management and a Continuing Education Certificate in Computer Science from the George Washington University.