AGA's Leadership Breakfasts bring private sector and government executives together to exchange information, solve issues and build partnership and trust. After all, we need each other. We share common goals, and we can learn from each other's mistakes and successes.

Relmond Van Daniker, Executive Director of AGA, will moderate a discussion with three federal agency executives on the biggest challenges facing their colleagues and themselves and what they would like to get accomplished in the remainder of the current Administration.

His guests will include:

- Johnnie Frazier - Inspector General – U.S. Department of Commerce
- Charles Havecost - Chief Information Officer – U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
- Alexis Stefani - Deputy Assistant Secretary for Finance & Budget/Office of the CFO – U.S. Department of Transportation

There will be time for Q&A from the audience after the discussion. Federal Chief Financial Officers, Chief Information Officers, Inspectors General and representatives from OMB and GAO will participate along with AGA Corporate Partners. Each Corporate Partner organization is allotted two registrations to the Breakfast at the fee of $100 per person. We expect to have close to 125 participants.

Each dinner is limited to sixteen Corporate Partners – only one per Corporate Partner organization. Selections for each dinner are based on a first-come first served basis AND based on previous attendance at dinners. Once the attendees are selected from the returned Reservation Forms, we will notify those who are confirmed for a seat and those who are placed on the waiting list.

New CPAG Committees Have Started!

Having been developed and launched in 2001, 2006 marks the fifth year of operation for the Corporate Partner program. We are now taking stock of the program and looking ahead into the future – Where Do We Go From Here? What Are We Trying to Accomplish? How Do We Go About Doing It?

Three committees have been formed - Research, Programs, and Membership (Marketing subcommittee) – and most have held a first meeting. We will update you on the progress of each committee as they move forward. If you are interested in participating on a committee, please contact Susan Fritzen.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks and have a great week!
