GASB 34 Event To Focus on Implementation, Audit Guide; Register Online By April 15

Is your organization prepared for the sweeping changes required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Statement No. 34—Basic Financial Statements—and Management's Discussion and Analysis—for State and Local Governments? Are you aware of the challenges and developing issues discovered since implementation has begun? If not, you may want to take part in the AGA/NASACT GASB 34 Teleconference to learn more. Registration closes April 15 for the teleconference to be held on May 9, 2001. This year's teleconference will expand on the issues touched on at last year's conference and it will review the forthcoming AICPA Audit Guide.

To find the location of the teleconference near you and to register, go to AGA's website at www.agacgfm.org. No site near you? You can still participate by having a webcast delivered to your personal computer. Better yet—do you know of a location that has satellite reception capabilities? Gather 29 or more of your associates and colleagues who could benefit and consider being a host site. Contact AGA for more details.

On the Agenda

The teleconference will cover the following topics:

- Overview of GASB 34 Implementation Issues
- Implementation of General Asset Accounting Reporting
- Implementation of Infrastructure Accounting and Reporting

- Preparation of Net Assets Statement of Activities
- Question & Answer Sessions
- AICPA Audit Guide
