Government Fraud Prevention & Detection Conference –
Sept. 25-26 in Atlanta, GA

Alexandria, VA - U.S. Comptroller General, David M. Walker, and Special Inspector General for Gulf Coast Hurricane Recovery, Matthew A. Jadacki will headline the Association of Government Accountants' (AGAs') First Annual Internal Control and Fraud Conference - Sept. 25-26, 2006 at the Hyatt Regency Atlanta, in Atlanta, GA.

With the theme, "Fraud Prevention and Detection: The Newest Tools and Techniques," the conference will focus on management's responsibility for ensuring a good system of internal controls and the role of accountability professionals in minimizing the risk of fraud, waste and abuse.

AGA has brought together the best in the business:

- Matthew A. Jadacki, CGFM, CPA, Special Inspector General for Gulf Coast Hurricane Recovery: "Working Together in Times of Crisis"
- Steven J. Hancox, Assistant Comptroller, Office of the State Comptroller, State of New York: Roslyn School District – "Anatomy of a Scandal"
- Comptroller General of the United States, David M. Walker, CPA
- David T. Wolfe, Founder, Glasgow Forensic Group: "Iraq Oil for Food $67 Billion Fraud Exposed"
- Johnnie Frazier, Inspector General, U.S. Department of Commerce: "Fraud Alert: Let the Whistles Blow"
- Anthony R. Mangini, CPA, CFE, Assistant Medicaid Inspector General for Audit, State of New York: "Medicare and Medicaid Fraud Costs Us All –Strategies to Reduce, Mitigate and Prevent Improper Payments and Fraud"
