

For Immediate Release

Contact: Ericka Tavares - etavares@agacgfm.org or 401.783.2835

Janice A. Jensen Honored with AGA Chapter Service Award;

Des Moines Chapter Member Praised as a Valued Role Model

ALEXANDRIA, VA, July 11, 2008 - The Association of Government Accountants (AGA) has honored Janice A. Jensen, CGFM, CPA, a member of its Des Moines Chapter, with a prestigious award in recognition of her many years of leadership. AGA will present the award at its 57th Annual Professional Development Conference and Exposition to be held July 27–30 in Atlanta.

In being honored with AGA's Chapter Service Award, Jensen was singled out for her efforts in many leadership roles and for helping the chapter to achieve Platinum Status, which denotes outstanding participation in many areas. A financial section supervisor for Iowa Vocational Rehabilitation, Jensen was praised for excelling at communication and serving as a valued role model. As a regional vice president, Jensen helps other AGA chapters improve newsletters, education programs and long-range planning efforts.

The Association of Government Accountants is a 15,000-member professional association that serves government accountability professionals by providing quality education, fostering professional development and certification and working in the public interest for higher standards of government accountability and transparency. To find out more about AGA, visit our website at www.agacgfm.org.