

Wendy Morton-Huddleston, CGFM, PMP AGA National President

Wendy is an Advisory Principal and Risk Service Line Leader in Grant Thornton Public Sector LLC. Wendy has over 25 years of experience providing insights to federal, state, local and not-for-profit clients. Wendy's professional experience is in enterprise risk management, business process optimization, project management, financial management, internal controls, grants management and strategic planning. Wendy served as president of the 2,200-member Washington, D.C. chapter of AGA from 2016-2017.

Wendy is a United Way National Capital Area (NCA) board member and an executive sponsor or ally for the following Business Resource Groups: Women, African-Americans, Equality GT and Veterans.

Wendy's AGA roles include:

- President-Elect, 2019-2020
- Council for the Advancement of Women, 2020
- Inaugural Chair of the National Council of Chapters, 2019-2020
- Senior Vice President Appointed, 2018 - 2019
- Professional Certification Board (PCB) and Higher Education Committee, 2017 - 2019
- Washington DC Chapter President, 2016 – 2017
- Andy Barr Award Recipient, 2017
- Accountability Committee, 2015

Wendy holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance from Norfolk State University, an MBA in Management and a MS in Finance from the University of Maryland and an Executive Leadership Certificate from Cornell University.