AGA Announces Annual Awards Recipients

Recipients Honored for Role in Advancing the Field of Government Financial Management

Alexandria, VA. – The Association of Government Accountants, or AGA, is proud to announce the recipients of its 2019 annual awards. Thirteen individuals and organizations will be honored for their significant contributions to the industry during AGA’s 2019 Professional Development Training, happening July 21-24 in New Orleans.

“During PDT, it is important to our association that we take the time to recognize the accomplishments of individuals and organizations who have made substantial contributions to the field,” said AGA CEO Ann Ebberts. “This year’s recipients have demonstrated outstanding leadership, determination and dedication to moving our profession forward. They truly represent the best of our industry and AGA is honored to recognize the impact of their work in front of their peers during our annual meeting.”
