Fighting Fraud with Analytics

WEBINAR SPEAKER:

Megan Gaillard, CGFM, Director of Audit, Palm Beach County OIG, Latesha Love, Assistant Director, Forensic Audits and Investigative Service, GAO

The field of data analytics is the next frontier in the war on fraud. As a rapidly growing field with emerging capabilities, data analytics is changing how organizations combat fraud—offering faster and easier methods to detect and respond to potential fraud. A well-considered fraud analytics strategy provides invaluable insight that can enable timely detection, avoiding the typical “pay and chase” approach to addressing fraud. And while many organizations lack the resources to develop highly sophisticated predictive analytics, there are opportunities to start small, with rules-based detection models on simple fraud use cases with abundant data sources, such as purchase cards or payroll systems.

Explore ways to build or further enhance your fraud detection and prevention toolkit with cost-effective analytics tools and techniques.

What is CGFM?

Certified Government Financial Manager® (CGFM®) is a professional certification awarded by AGA, demonstrating competency in governmental accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal controls and budgeting at the federal, state and local levels.

What are the initial requirements?

To earn the CGFM, individuals must apply for the CGFM program and meet the following requirements:

Ethics — read and agree to abide by AGA's Code of Ethics

Education — have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university

Examinations — pass three comprehensive CGFM examinations

Experience — have at least two years of professional-level experience in government financial management

Maintaining CGFM Certification

To retain the CGFM certification, all CGFM's must adhere to the AGA's Code of Ethics. In addition, to continue using the CGFM designation after their name, CGFM's must be in an active status.

Active Status

To maintain the CGFM certification in an active status, CGFM's are required to:

- Pay the CGFM renewal fee by the due date every year.
- Complete at least 80 hours of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) every two years in government financial management topics or related technical subjects (within the designated two-year cycle).
- Maintain and, if requested by AGA, provide detailed information on CPE hours completed.

By submitting their annual renewal payment, CGFM's affirm that they have and will continue to abide by AGA's Code of Ethics and that they have fulfilled the minimum CPE Requirements.
