President's Message

Dear Members:

SAVE THE DATE – APRIL 27, 2017

The Roanoke Chapter, in conjunction with the Shenandoah Chapter is planning a joint Professional Development Workshop to be held April 27, 2017 in the Augusta County government complex. We are excited about this new joint venture and hope that you will make plans to attend. More information will follow but we want to make sure you are able to go ahead and save the date!

NEW WEB SITE

Don't forget that the Roanoke Chapter has a new website! Vicki Moore is doing an excellent job keeping this website current, so be sure to check it out for all your AGA needs. It is very user friendly with current information and links to pertinent resources. Feel free to contact Vicki with any feedback, input or suggestions you may have:

CHARITABLE DONATIONS

In keeping with the spirit of the season, the Roanoke Chapter has made donations to both the Montgomery County Christmas Store and the RAM House in Roanoke. The links to both organizations are below if you would like more information on their respective mission(s). As always we are thankful for the generous spirit of our membership.
