

April 10, 2008

AGA Presents a Two-Hour Ethics Seminar

At Cooper Tennis Complex

11:30 AM to 1:30 PM

The session is designed to provide participants with:

- Understanding of the meaning of ethics and why ethics are critical,
- Understanding of various facets of moral reasoning,
- Understanding how moral reasoning is used for ethical decision-making,
- The tools and techniques for analyzing ethical situations and using these tools to make ethical decisions including identification of the stakeholders, the issues involved, and the process for making an ethical decision,
- Understanding concepts associated with business ethics and the impact of business ethics on corporate governance,
- Examining how firms develop corporate codes of conduct and the roles such codes have on corporate governance,
- Understanding the importance of ethics on accounting,
- Understand professional ethics for accountants in public accounting with emphasis on the AICPA Code of Conduct.

➤ AGA ~ Advancing Government Accountability

Date: 04/10/08

Location: Cooper Tennis Complex, Atrium Room
2331 E. Pythian
Springfield, MO

Time: 11:30 am – 1:30 pm

Fee: $15 with box lunch
$10 without lunch

Iced Tea & water will be provided to drink.

For reservations please email or call:

JRHill@Greencountymo.org

Phone: 417-829-6202

Fax: 417-829-6196

From Drury University, Your Speaker will be:

Rodney Oglesby PhD, CPA, CMA, CFM, CGFM, CVA

Dr. Rod Oglesby is a long time resident of southwest Missouri. He received a BSBA from University of Missouri - Columbia, his MBA from Southern Illinois University in Edwardsville Illinois, a Ph.D. from the University of Missouri – Columbia and completed the Institute for Educational Management program at Harvard University in Cambridge Massachusetts.

Dr. Oglesby has held many financial and administrative positions including: Controller, Director of Financial Affairs, Vice President for Financial Affairs, Executive Vice President for Internal Affairs, Chief Operating Officer – Interim CEO, Assistant Dean and Director of Graduate Study and Chief Administrative Officer of SIFE. Additionally, his faculty experience includes Instructor of Accounting, Business and Economics at Missouri Baptist College, Special Instructor of Accounting and trainer for the Management Development Institute at Missouri State University, Professor of Accounting and Management at Southwest Baptist University and is currently Professor of Accounting at Drury University in Springfield, Missouri.

An accomplished author he has published several articles in Activity Based Costing, Ethical Issues and Moral Reasoning, is currently researching the Ethics of Tax evasion. He has led numerous regional seminars, is a licensed CPA sitting on the MSCPA Ethics Committee and serves as lead Consultant with Mentor Group, LLC. Additionally, Dr. Oglesby is Editor of the Business Research Yearbook published by the International Academy of Business Disciplines and serves on the Editorial Board of the Journal of International Business Disciplines.

ANNUAL ETHICS SEMINAR
COOPER TENNIS COMPLEX ATRIUM ROOM
2331 E. PYTHIAN
SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI
THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 2008
REGISTRATION FORM

NAME
EMPLOYER
JOB POSITION/TITLE
WORK PHONE
EMAIL

Fee for two hours CPE:
$15 includes a deli style box lunch
$10 if you would prefer to bring your own lunch
Fulfills the annual Ethics requirement

Please email or call to make your reservation. Let us know if you would like the box lunch.

Please respond by April 8th.

jrhill@greencountymo.org

Phone: 417-829-6202

Fax: 417-829-6196

Please make checks payable to Ozarks Chapter of AGA

If your employer requires an invoice, we will be happy to mail or fax one to them.

