December 2018

Message From the President

Things are really getting cold outside, as we turn our gaze towards December and all of that holiday cheer, but also much holiday bustle, too. I hope that you had a great November and Thanksgiving day! In November we had an excellent discussion at our meeting on the 14th, at the Department of Education. Joel L. Waterfield led a very interesting discussion on Blockchain that I think gave all participants something to think about. Also, in November our chapter grew by one member.

Welcome, Diane from the City of Mesa Transportation.

In December, we are looking forward to another live presentation. This presentation will be at 11:30 AM December 19th, at ASU Skysong. Our AGA National Treasurer, Dennis Green, CPA, CGFM, will present on the topic of Managing Resources through the Budget.

This event will also be AGA's annual holiday party. Come and enjoy the festivities and hear about this very important topic. There will also be opportunities to win the raffle.

This event is worth two CPE. To register for the event, pay for the package deal, or check out our full event listing, head over to our Eventbrite site, at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/o/aga-phoenix-chapter-2342352490>.

After our December meeting, we will again hold a board meeting, from 2 PM to 3 PM. Members are always welcome to these board meetings, to learn more about your board, or to participate as a committee member (e.g., education, community service, young professional, etc.). I highly recommend getting involved. After all, this is your Chapter, and your thoughts and ideas should be represented here. As always, though, you can share any feedback that you have with the board, at contact@agaphoenix.org.

Also, please be on the lookout for a survey that the Board will send out in early December, to get your feedback. We hope that you will take this opportunity to tell us how we are doing, and what, if anything, we can improve.
