Advancing Government Accountability

Volume VIII, Issue 18

November, 2011

Message from the President

Hello fellow number crunchers, I do hope your fall is going well. My sources reported that the fall seminar was a success. I was unable to attend because of work related commitments. It is nice to have the support in the leadership team that I have and hope everyone appreciates all the hard work they do. I know I do. It seems like this time of year gets busier each and every time it comes around.

Rick Findley

We have plans for another very interesting meeting on the 8th of November where you can hear about the fair tax. Seems like there is a lot of talk about tax revision with 9-9-9 and another suggesting a 20% income tax, I think we need to be well informed. Hope you can attend that meeting and thanks to everyone who had a part in setting it up.

Please remember that you can still get $25 off of a CGFM test until the end of the year. I am hoping to find time to schedule and pass another of those before January 1ST. Then I can make a new years resolution to finish that process. I know there are others that are at least thinking the same so you may want to let us know so we could organize some study groups.

Again thanks for everything you do. Keep up the good work.

Rick Findley (rickfindley@yahoo.com)

State Tax Revenue Climbs, Local Tax Money Slides

October 31, 2011

By Michael Cohn, Accounting Today

State tax revenues increased 10.8 percent in the second quarter of 2011, but revenues for local governments headed in the opposite direction.

An analysis by the Nelson A Rockefeller Institute of Government at the University of Albany found that state tax revenues increased 8.4 percent on an annual basis for 46 states in past fiscal year, giving them six consecutive quarters of growth and the best annual performance since 2005.

Every state except New Hampshire reported an increase in overall tax collections in the second quarter, compared to the second quarter last year. In 19 states, there were double digit increases.

Preliminary figures for July and August indicate continued growth, though not as strong as in the second quarter. Overall collections in 41 states exhibited gains of 6.8 percent on average compared to July and August of last year.

The largest gains in the second quarter came from personal income taxes, which rose more than 16 percent compared to the second quarter of last year. It was the third straight quarter of double-digit growth, although the strong gains are not expected to continue, given the precarious state of the economy.

“In recent months, growth in tax revenues has been significantly and unsustainably stronger than growth in the economy,” wrote the study’s authors, Lucy Dadayan and Robert B. Ward. “If the economy continues to show weakness during the second half of 2011 and into early 2012, revenue growth will likely soften as well.”

On the other hand, local governments saw their tax revenues continue to fall. The second quarter saw the third consecutive quarter of declines in local property tax revenues, with the money declining by 1 percent compared to the second quarter of last year.

Obama Order Limits Student-Loan Payments

The Washington Post

By David Nakamura and Scott Wilson

President Obama announced that he will authorize changes in federal policy to make college loans more affordable and easier to repay for millions of economically trapped borrowers.

The president's plan, which he will impose by executive authority, is aimed at addressing a sector of the credit market that has become increasingly problematic in the bad economy and that gained renewed attention through the Occupy Wall Street movement, which has made student-loan relief one of its objectives.

Obama told thousands of cheering students at the University of Colorado's Denver campus that his administration will no longer wait for Congress to respond to the rising financial burden of higher education. The president also told the students that he and first lady Michelle Obama empathize with their plight.

"We were paying more on our student loans than we were paying on our mortgage each month," he said. "How do we make college more affordable, and how do we reduce your burden?"

The president's "Know Before You Owe" plan would allow some college graduates to limit federal student loan repayments to 10 percent of discretionary income starting in January, two years before the cap was due to take effect under federal law.

Are you curious about what how the chapter operates? Maybe you've thought about serving but it sounds intimidating and you don't know what would be expected? Well there is an opportunity to learn about how AGA operates and how easy and exciting it is to participate. Saturday, January 21st there is a Regional AGA meeting to discuss just this opportunity. We will have current chapter officers; along with potential chapter officers attend the regional meeting in Kansas City. It's a terrific opportunity to meet people already serving AGA leadership positions from around the area and a chance to discuss what you could do to keep the Ozarks Chapter active next year. Ozarks Chapter AGA—Community Service Project

Beginning in November we will be taking donations for the Family Violence Center in Springfield and guess what, it won't cost you a thing (unless of course you want to make a monetary donation)!!! You know when you go on vacation or a business trip and you snag the hotel shampoo, conditioner and soap before leaving...come on, we all have that stuff in a travel bag somewhere. Well, the Family Violence Center would LOVE to have them. Many of their clients come to them, having left everything behind but the clothes on their back! Well, the Ozarks Chapter of AGA will be taking your unused hotel samples at the November, December and January meetings and dropping them off at the Family Violence Center (don't worry we will be reminding you every month in case you forget)! Pitch in, clean out that travel bag and help someone in need. For more information contact Community Service Director, Nancy Weems.

Thank You!

A big thank you to everyone that brought canned goods to the Fall Seminar. We collected 60 pounds of food and a $10.00 cash donation. Ozarks Food Harvest and your Ozarks AGA really appreciates it!

Early Career Chair Wanted!

First off, what does Early Careers even mean? An early career member is a “young professional”; those with 3 years or less of work experience. They receive a discounted membership rate as they get established in their career. There is no doubt that the American workforce is aging and we need to encourage young leaders to step up and lead.

The early career chair position is designed to identify early career member needs and recruit new early career members. This position will help promote the financial scholarships available through the community service chair. Participate in one college campus student fair or job fair to let them know what AGA is about and encourage them to seek the CGFM designation. Provide an “Early Career Corner” newsletter article once per quarter. Encourage early career members to participate in the Chapter.

You don't have to BE an Early Career member to hold this position; you just have to have a heart for those that will follow in the years to come. - Contact Teresa or Brandie for additional information!

★ NEW Accountability Outreach Chair Wanted: National AGA has a new initiative and chapter chair position beginning in the 2011-2012 chapter year. It is the Accountability Outreach Chair (AOC)...the what you ask? This position is responsible for promoting AGA's performance and accountability programs. Accountability is one of four strategic themes adopted by AGA and the AOC is crucial to the successful advancement of accountability in government.

★ Bottom line, what does that mean the AOC would do? First, we need to prepare a Chapter Citizen Centric Report (CCR). The CCR is a 4 page document explaining to the members (and potential non-members) who we are, our goals and challenges, pie charts showing revenue sources and expenditure types and where the chapter is headed. Now, the Ozarks chapter officers are already working on this as a group and should be done by September!!

★ Also, prepare a chapter accountability outreach plan such as contacting government agencies to encourage or help them to create their own CCR. There are LOTS of resources out there, you don't have to reinvent the wheel when it comes to outreach. Encourage a member or become an AGA reviewer of Citizen Centric Reports or the CEAR (Federal) or SEA (State) Efforts and Accomplishments reports.

★ For more information about the AOC, contact Rick Findley, at rickf@co.taney.mo.us.
