AWARD NOMINATION

Please take a moment to recognize those in our profession who have contributed to government financial management. Idaho has a LOT of great financial managers – and we need to ensure that great work and contributions do not go unnoticed. Nominations are due by November 30, 2016, “TODAY” and the AGA’s leadership and excellence awards are a fantastic way to recognize those deserving. You can find the awards and nomination forms at the link below.

If you missed this opportunity, then you can nominate someone for the Spring Awards. Information will be provided on that later.

Do you know someone from Boise State, College of Southern Idaho, Idaho University, or North Idaho College? Can you get us invited to speak to their accounting students, accounting club, or “Meet the Firms” night?
