

Michael Griese

Michael Griese is the Lead Budget Analyst for Region 6 & 7 RWA in GSA's Office of the Chief Financial Officer. In his current role Michael is a technical expert for the reimbursable services budget activity supporting the Public Buildings Service. Michael began his Federal career in 2003 as a Financial Management Specialist in the GSA Washington, DC headquarters and he was exposed to multiple divisions within the GSA. In 2005, he relocated to the GSA Financial Services Division in Fort Worth, TX where he was the Property, CASH, and RWA Group Managers ensuring financial integrity of customer transactions and reports for both accounts payable and receivable departments.

John Rich, CPA, CGFM

John Rich is the Director of Financial Management in GSA's Office of the Chief Financial Officer, Zone 2 (Regions 4, 6 & 7). In his current role John leads a team of financial management professionals to support the financial activities of the Public Buildings Service. John's entire career has been with GSA. First in financial operations, then for 15 years at headquarters OCFO. There he wrote agency accounting policy, developed agency wide metrics, led audits, and coordinated GSA's Annual Financial Report. John also worked on the staff of the CFO Council where he supported financial management initiatives across the Federal government.