

Cindy Goelz

I have been with Maricopa County for 17 years. My entire tenure here has been in the Budget Office, serving as Budget Director since 2017. I moved to Phoenix from Pennsylvania, specifically to come work for Maricopa County. Prior to the move, I lived in southeast PA, outside of Reading (if you have played monopoly you have heard of Reading). I started my career in government in 1986 as the Financial Officer for a social service department and continued in the role for 11 years before presenting our Board of Commissioners with a proposal to privatize our county department. They jumped on the idea and in 3 short months we created a non-profit and made the transition. I served as the VP/CFO of the agency until 2002, when I moved to Maricopa County.

I have a BS in Accounting, a BA in Banking and Finance, and my MBA with an emphasis on economic development and community service. I am a Certified Government Financial Manager.

I enjoy spending time with my family, and I love to travel the world. I try to cruise several times a year.

Mayra Hourigan

Mayra Salcido Hourigan is the Budget Manager for the Maricopa County Budget Office. She has been with Maricopa County for 13 years. She has previously served as Finance Manager of Facilities Management, Finance Manager in the Budget Development and Risk Management Division for the Sherriff's Office, and Financial Supervisor with the Department of Finance. Prior to working for the County, she was as an auditor with the State of Arizona, Office of the Auditor General's Office, where she audited Maricopa County. In essence, her entire career has been with Maricopa County in one way or another.

She holds a CPA and a bachelor's degree in Accountancy from Arizona State University. A native of Yuma, Arizona, she now lives with her husband in Mesa. (She serves as Budget Manager at home as well).
