

An Yu, Executive Director - Cybersecurity & Technology Controls, Enterprise Technology

An has been working in Technology for nearly two decades and working in cybersecurity risk and controls space over 15 years. In her current role as an Information Security Manager she is focused on understanding and articulating the Risk & Controls aligned to the Chief Technology Office (CTO) specifically as it relates to the Firm's Technology Portfolio Management and Data Architecture. Prior to joining JP Morgan Chase, she was a Technology Risk Director working with a large portfolio of clients across multiple industries helping each to advance their technologies and overall enhance their security posture. She provided expertise in both Privacy and Security standards, benchmarks, and regulatory requirements.

An is active in multiple industry associations and has been a cybersecurity guest speaker at various events including previously holding a seat on the Advisory Board of her alma mater, The University of Texas at Austin. She lives in Houston, TX with her husband, Eric, and two active elementary school children, Jacob and Kylie.

Paul Forthman, Executive Director – Industry Executive, Government Banking, J.P. Morgan

Paul Forthman is an Industry Executive in the Government Banking Group for J.P. Morgan. He manages a team of Bankers and Treasury Management Officers covering government clients in Texas and Oklahoma. Paul has 20 years of banking experience and has been with J.P. Morgan for 11 years. Paul began his banking career as a Treasury Services Analyst and then became a Treasury Management Sales Officer covering a wide variety of industry verticals and he has managed a team in the government space for the past 7 years.

Paul holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology and Education and he is a Certified Treasury Professional. Paul lives in Rowlett, TX with his wife Jennifer and they have four children.