

Ross Roark
Human Resources Specialist
City of Springfield, Missouri

Ross currently leads recruitment efforts for Planning and Development, Information Systems, Building Development Services, Finance, and variety of other positions. He's worked in the field of recruitment and retention for 10 years in the public and private sector. Ross started his career with Mercy where he began his career in recruitment and retention.

Ross is a graduate from Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Psychology and an emphasis in Human Resources Management.