

Rochelle Yoap
Assistant Director of Human Resources
City of Springfield, Missouri

Rochelle Yoap has been working in management and human resources for 15 years and is currently the Assistant Director of Human Resources for the City of Springfield, Missouri. She leads the HR employee benefits division, and the employment division responsible for the recruitment and retention needs of 22 City departments. Prior to the City, Rochelle worked as the Manager of Talent Selection/Human Resource Optimization for Mercy where she led a ministry-wide recruitment team, and for the State of Arkansas as a Human Resources Program Representative.

Rochelle has a Bachelor of Behavioral Health-Psychology from Evangel University with a Certificate in Crisis Intervention.