Internal Control:

Applying ERM Programs to Address Cybersecurity Risks

WEBINAR SPEAKER:

Nick Marinos, Director, Information Technology and Cybersecurity GAO

The audience will hear about GAO's recent report "Agencies Need to Fully Establish Risk Management Programs and Address Challenges" and learn about practical steps to address report's key recommendations and build a risk-based approach to cybersecurity. While the topic of ERM has been discussed frequently, the nexus between ERM and cybersecurity is still being defined and tested. The audience will learn about key challenges to establishing a robust and compliant cybersecurity risk management program

Learning objectives:

The attendees have the benefit of hearing from GAO's report authors on the lessons learned from their research as well as other agency speakers on how to build a roadmap for an effective cybersecurity risk management program. In addition, the participants will understand the importance of the following learning objectives:

- Learn how to manage competing priorities between cybersecurity and operations, such as when operational needs appear to conflict with cybersecurity requirements
- Learn how to implement consistent cybersecurity risk management policies and procedures across an agency
- Learn how to incorporate cyber risks into enterprise risk management, and
- Learn how to establish agencies' cybersecurity risk management strategies

What is CGFM?

Certified Government Financial Manager® (CGFM®) is a professional certification awarded by AGA, demonstrating competency in governmental accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal controls and budgeting at the federal, state and local levels.

What are the initial requirements?

To earn the CGFM, individuals must apply for the CGFM program and meet the following requirements:

Ethics — read and agree to abide by AGA's Code of Ethics

Education — have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university

Examinations — pass three comprehensive CGFM examinations

Experience — have at least two years of professional-level experience in government financial management

Maintaining CGFM Certification

To retain the CGFM certification, all CGFMs must adhere to the AGA's Code of Ethics. In addition, to continue using the CGFM designation after their name, CGFMs must be in an active status.

Active Status

To maintain the CGFM certification in an active status, CGFMs are required to:

- Pay the CGFM renewal fee by the due date every year.
- Complete at least 80 hours of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) every two years in government financial management topics or related technical subjects (within the designated two-year cycle).
- Maintain and, if requested by AGA, provide detailed information on CPE hours completed.

By submitting their annual renewal payment, CGFMs affirm that they have and will continue to abide by AGA's Code of Ethics and that they have fulfilled the minimum CPE Requirements.
