FY 2019 CEAR Reviewer Training

December 5 | 9–11:00 AM ET | 2 CPEs | FOS: ACCG

AGA's Certificate of Excellence in Accountability Reporting (CEAR)® Program has been helping federal agencies improve their Performance and Accountability Reports (PARs) or Agency Financial Reports (AFRs) since 1997. The program was established in collaboration with the Chief Financial Officers Council and the U.S. Office of Management and Budget to improve accountability by streamlining reporting and improving the effectiveness of such reports so they clearly show what an agency accomplished with taxpayer dollars and the challenges that remain. The CEAR program reviews, with detailed critiques and recommendations, have proven

Season of Giving !

Help advance the profession!

Make a difference in the future of our community by supporting students – the next generation of FM professionals and public sector leaders.

Your charitable gift will have a direct impact here in AGA. As emerging technologies change the nature our government financial services profession, the way we work and interact with one another, and the citizens we serve, AGA remains steadfast our desire to prepare up-and-coming professions to succeed. Our programs, resources and ethics guidance provide the insights, skills and knowledge needed in the workforce of tomorrow.

We want to raise $10,000 by the end of 2019 to help the next generation lead our profession with vision and confidence. Your tax-deductible gift will help us reach our goal and make a positive impact on the future.

CGFM Class 2020 - Oklahoma City, OK

The Oklahoma City AGA chapter is reaching out to let us know they are hosting a CGFM class in Oklahoma City March 2-6, 2020. Feel free to email topekachapter@agaks.org for details.

AGA Topeka Chapter wanted to get the word out to the members within driving distance to see if anyone is interested in participating in the class. Registration is $1,200 through the beginning of February: this includes all training materials and 5 days of instruction from AGA National. Registration information can be found at

<https://www.agacgfm.org/Chapters/Oklahoma-City-Chapter/Training-Events/Event-Calendar/CGFM-Class.aspx>

What is CGFM?

Certified Government Financial Manager® (CGFM®) is a professional certification awarded by AGA, demonstrating competency in governmental accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal controls and budgeting at the federal, state and local levels.

What are the initial requirements?

To earn the CGFM, individuals must apply for the CGFM program and meet the following requirements:

Ethics — read and agree to abide by AGA's Code of Ethics

Education — have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university

Examinations — pass three comprehensive CGFM examinations

Experience — have at least two years of professional-level experience in government financial management

Maintaining CGFM Certification

To retain the CGFM certification, all CGFMs must adhere to the AGA's Code of Ethics. In addition, to continue using the CGFM designation after their name, CGFMs must be in an active status.

Active Status

To maintain the CGFM certification in an active status, CGFMs are required to:

- Pay the CGFM renewal fee by the due date every year.
- Complete at least 80 hours of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) every two years in government financial management topics or related technical subjects (within the designated two-year cycle).
- Maintain and, if requested by AGA, provide detailed information on CPE hours completed.

By submitting their annual renewal payment, CGFMs affirm that they have and will continue to abide by AGA's Code of Ethics and that they have fulfilled the minimum CPE Requirements.
