

For More Information:
Anna Schumann | Communications and Marketing Manager
800.AGA.7211, ext. 308 | aschumann@agacgfm.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA ADVISORY

AGA, AFFIRM Bring Government CFO, CIO Communities Together

(WASHINGTON, D.C., MAY 13) — AGA's annual CFO/CIO Summit in Washington, co-sponsored with AFFIRM, is a half-day event geared toward the collaboration and cooperation between federal chief financial officers (CFOs) and chief information officers (CIOs). The event features CFOs and CIOs from multiple agencies, who will explain how they have worked together to address issues including IT procurement and address various goals.

WHAT: Sessions include:

- OMB Update
- Perspectives from the C-Suite
- Complying with the DATA Act and FITARA
- Buying IT Today: Category Management and Strategic Sourcing

WHEN: May 13
8 a.m. –12:15 p.m.

WHERE: Washington Marriott at Metro Center
775 12th St. NW, Washington, D.C., 20005
11th and G St. entrance at Metro Center

WHO: Speakers include:

- Dave Mader, Controller, U.S. Office of Management and Budget
- Luke McCormack, CIO, Department of Homeland Security
- David Bloom, CFO, Environmental Protection Agency
- Tami Perriello, CFO, Small Business Administration
- Jonathan Alboum, CIO, United States Department of Agriculture
- Lesley Field, Acting Administrator, Office of Federal Procurement Policy, OMB

RSVP: Anna Schumann

About AGA: AGA is the member organization for financial professionals in government. We lead and encourage change that benefits our field and all citizens. Our networking events, professional certification, publications and ongoing education help members build their skills and advance their careers.

About AFFIRM: The Association for Federal Information Resources Management (AFFIRM) is a non-profit, volunteer, educational organization dedicated to improving the management of information, and related systems and resources, within the Federal government.

###