

For More Information:
Anna Schumann | Communications and Marketing Manager
800.AGA.7211, ext. 308 | aschumann@agacgfm.org

NOT FOR PUBLICATION

MEDIA ADVISORY

Sessions on Budgeting, Cybersecurity, Fiscal Sustainability Dominate AGA's PDT

(WASHINGTON, D.C., JULY 17–20) — AGA's annual Professional Development Training event (PDT) features experts addressing the latest and most pressing issues in government financial management, including bankruptcy, shared services, the DATA Act and cybersecurity. PDT draws roughly 1,500 government-finance professionals from across the country for four days of collaboration, problem-solving and sharing best practices.

WHAT: Sessions include:

- Moving to the Cloud — Lessons, Challenges, Considerations
- Communicating the Value of Government to Citizens
- San Bernadino Bankruptcy — Causes, Processes and Resolution
- The Future of Financial Reporting in State and Local Government
- Challenges for Federal and State Fiscal Sustainability
- CIO Insight: What Governments Can Learn from Disney
- Advocating for Government Accounting Curriculum
- Women in Accounting and Finance: Leadership Lessons for Success

WHEN: July 17–20
8 a.m. –5 p.m. PST

WHERE: Anaheim Convention Center
800 W Katella Avenue
Anaheim, CA 92802

WHO: Speakers include:

- Gene Dodaro, CGFM, Comptroller General, U.S. Government Accountability Office
- Allen Fazio, CPA, CISA, former Disneyland CIO
- Elaine Howle, MBA, CGFM, CPA, California State Auditor, State of California
- Melinda Miguel, CIG, CFSA, CBM, CICA, PMP, Chief Inspector General, State of Florida

RSVP: Anna Schumann

About AGA: AGA is the member organization for government-finance professionals. We lead and encourage change that benefits our field and all citizens. Our networking events, professional certification, publications and ongoing education help members build their skills and advance their careers.*

###