

Ann Ebberts
Chief Executive Officer
AGA

Ann M. Ebberts is AGA's Chief Executive Officer. She works to develop educational and networking events to inform members and interested parties about current legislation and key initiatives impacting the financial management community and works with government leaders to increase government accountability and transparency to build citizen trust in government.