

Bert Nuehring Partner Crowe LLP

Mr. Nuehring is a partner with the public accounting, consulting and technology firm of Crowe LLP. Mr. Nuehring has been in the public accounting profession for over 30 years and has been responsible for planning, administering and supervising audit, accounting and consulting service engagements for governmental, education and not-for-profit entities.

Mr. Nuehring has extensive experience with Uniform Grant Guidance compliance, compliance auditing, performance auditing, internal auditing, Enterprise Risk Management, internal controls, federal grant administration, and standards implementation. Mr. Nuehring has presented seminars to a number of professional organizations on accounting, auditing and reporting issues in the public sector throughout the United States.

Mr. Nuehring has also been a guest lecturer at the University of Illinois at Chicago on governmental and nonprofit accounting and accounting information systems. Mr. Nuehring holds a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting and Business Administration from Wartburg College and is a certified public accountant and chartered global management accountant.