

Dr. Doug Webster
Principle
TFC Consulting

Dr. Doug Webster is a Principle with TFC Consulting. His federal service has included serving as the CFO of both the US Dept. of Labor and the US Dept. of Education.

He is a pioneer in federal ERM, having introduced the concept to the OMB Office of Financial Management in 2008. That year he established the first-ever cross-agency group of senior federal executives interested in ERM and led that group to the founding of AFERM in 2011, where he served as AFERM's first president.

He also led establishment of the annual federal ERM Summits, beginning in 2008. He currently serves on the AFERM board as the treasurer. Dr. Webster is co-author of four books, including "Risk Management: A Guide for Government Decision-Makers" (2014) and "Value-Based Management in Government" (2020).
