

Corinne Dougherty
Partner
KPMG

Corinne Dougherty is a partner in KPMG's Washington, DC office. She has over 18 years of experience providing financial statement audit and related assurance services to federal agencies. Corinne leads the KPMG Government Sector Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practice.

Additionally, Corinne oversees the development and delivery of ESG training, advises clients in developing best practices for impact measurement and reporting, and leads teams engaged to provide ESG assurance services.