

Mary Goldsmith National Federal Sector Director RSM

Mary Goldsmith serves as the lead director for RSM's public sector team in Washington D.C. RSM is the nation's fifth largest public accounting firm offering services in audit, tax and consulting.

Mary's primary focus the past 16 years has been on client growth, development, strategy, and synergistic relationship building across a portfolio of diverse clientele including federal, state & local agencies, GSE's, banking industry regulators, and market makers.

Client development, satisfaction and retention are a hallmark of Mary's career. Her industry focus includes financial services, real estate, housing and government. She also serves as an in-house lobbyist with the goal of enhancing public policy and required appropriations that correlates with the firm's strategic initiatives.

Prior to joining RSM, Mary worked in the Florida Legislative process, parlaying that experience into a role with the Mortgage Bankers Association and then functioned in a sales and lobbying capacity for global engineering firm, Atkins.
