Vision

AGA is the premier association for advancing government accountability.

Mission Statement

AGA fosters learning, certification, leadership and collaboration for professionals and stakeholders committed to advancing government accountability.

2024 LEAD Conference Attendees

The AGA Hawaii Chapter has been offering its members a number of affordable opportunities to further their knowledge and keep current on the latest technologies, governmental auditing and financial reporting issues, while earning Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits to maintain and enhance their professional careers. These opportunities include sponsoring the Hawaii Chapter's annual Government Professional Accountability Webinar and trainings. The Chapter also makes the training and CPE opportunities available to non-members.

 Certified Government Financial Manager® (CGFM®) is a professional certification awarded by AGA, demonstrating competency in governmental accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal controls, and budgeting at the federal, state, and local levels. To earn the CGFM, candidates must apply for the CGFM Program and meet education and experience requirements. The Hawaii Chapter implemented the "You Pass, We Pay" CGFM program to invest in our members' professional growth. We will reimburse qualifying members (i.e., active AGA Hawaii Chapter members who reside in the state of Hawaii) for the $70 application fee plus the $125 cost for each of the three parts for a total of $445.

Revenues and Expenditures

Revenues by Source

The Hawaii Chapter's main source of revenue is Government Professional Accountability Webinar (GPAW). PY 2023's GPAW was two days training event with 156 attendees. PY 2022 and PY 2024 were a one-day training events.

Expenditures by Type

AGA Hawaii made a $25,000 contribution to the University of Hawaii at West Oahu in PY 2022 and $50,000 contribution to the University of Hawaii Foundation in PY 2024 with no similar contributions in PY 2023. The PY 2023 travel expenses are higher than the budget by $3,000. Other expenses include Directors and Officers insurance premiums of approximately $1,600 in PYs 2024, 2023, and 2022.

The figures presented above are unaudited figures covering July through June for fiscal years 2022, 2023 and 2024. The Chapter executive committee reviewed the financial reports; however, the information returns from, Form 990-N for 2022, 2023, and 2024 were independently reviewed. For detailed financials of the AGA Hawaii Chapter, please visit <https://www.agacgfm.org/Chapters/Hawaii-Chapter/Home.aspx> or contact Chapter President Kyle Detke at kyle.detke@honolulu.gov.

Chapter Goals

- Recruit more young professionals and members from Federal sector
- Continue to provide all our members with quality education training and events both virtually and in-person platforms

Challenges Moving Forward

- Leadership succession
- Searching for annual training and luncheon venues for in-person events
