How to Participate

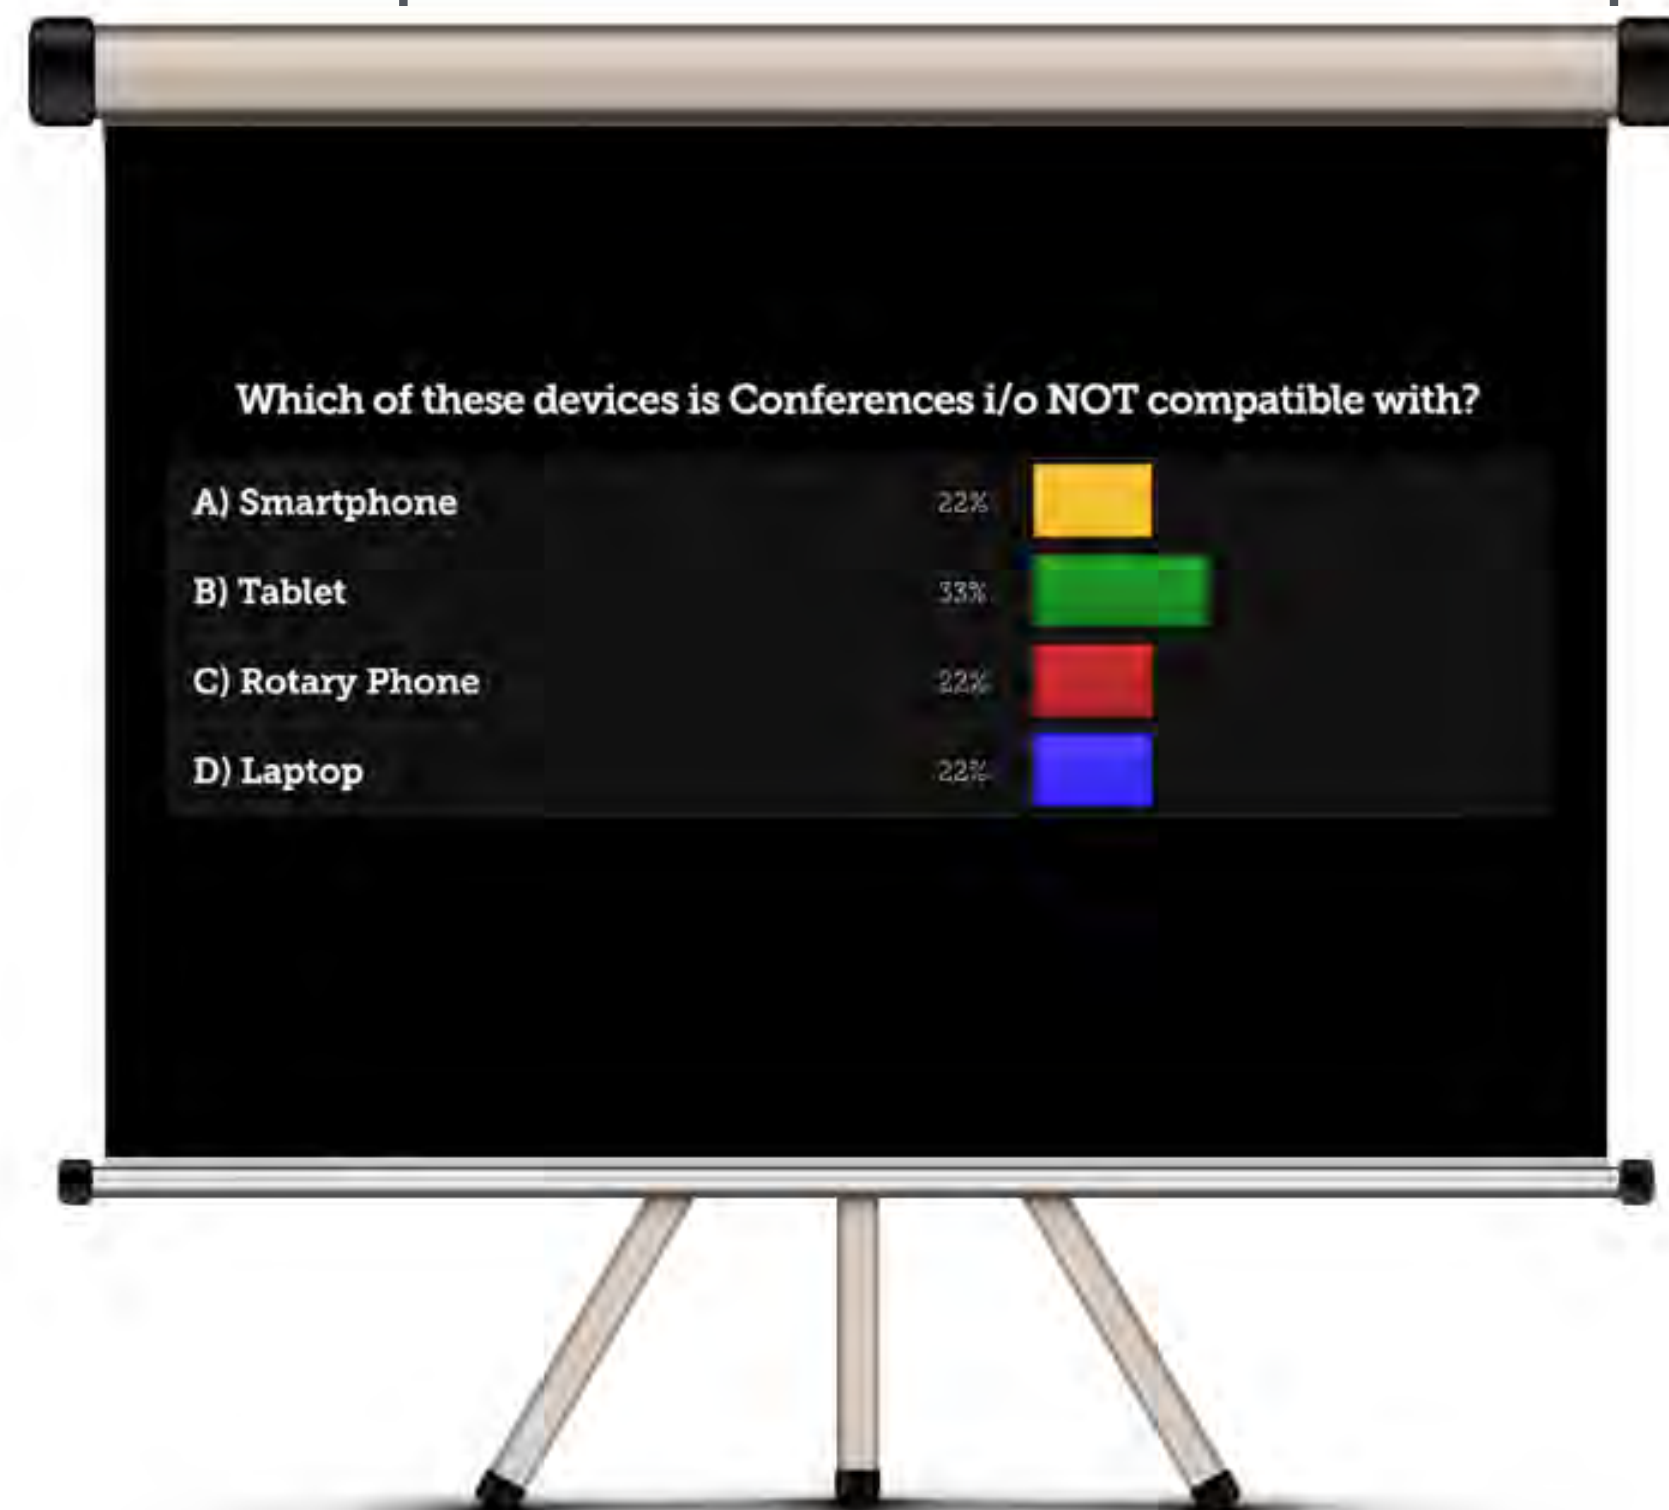

Respond to Polls when they appear

Seamless Integration with PowerPoint, Keynote, and Google Slides

Insert Polls, Social Q&A, and Trivia Battle Games into a presentation with the click of a button, making it seamless for presenters to control and display in real-time.

Windows PowerPoint

Mac Keynote & PowerPoint

Google Slides

A Polling Tool You Can Rely On

- ✓ Polls are instantly pushed to attendee devices
- ✓ Results are displayed / projected beautifully in real-time
- ✓ Presenters have full control of when and where results are displayed

Multiple Polling Formats to Fit Multiple Use Cases

Polling Formats

- ✓ Multiple Choice
- ✓ Open Ended
- ✓ Brainstorming
- ✓ Numerical Average
- ✓ And More...

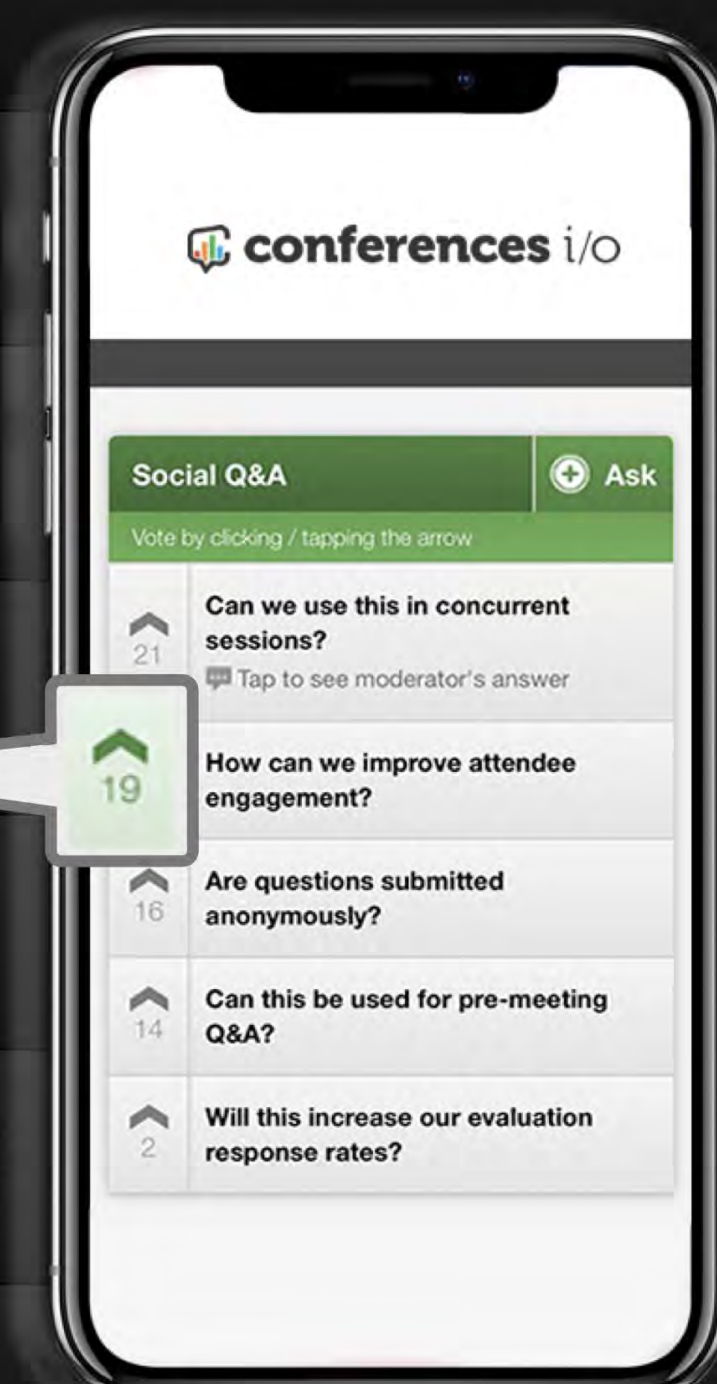

Use Cases

- ✓ Attention Checks
- ✓ Help Presenters Get to Know Their Audience
- ✓ Collect Data for Marketing Purposes

32	Can we use this in concurrent sessions?
32	How can we improve attendee engagement?
26	Can this be used for pre-meeting Q&A?
17	Will this increase our evaluation response rates?
16	What data is captured from users?
9	Are Active Learning and Engagement the same thing?
5	Where did you grow up?

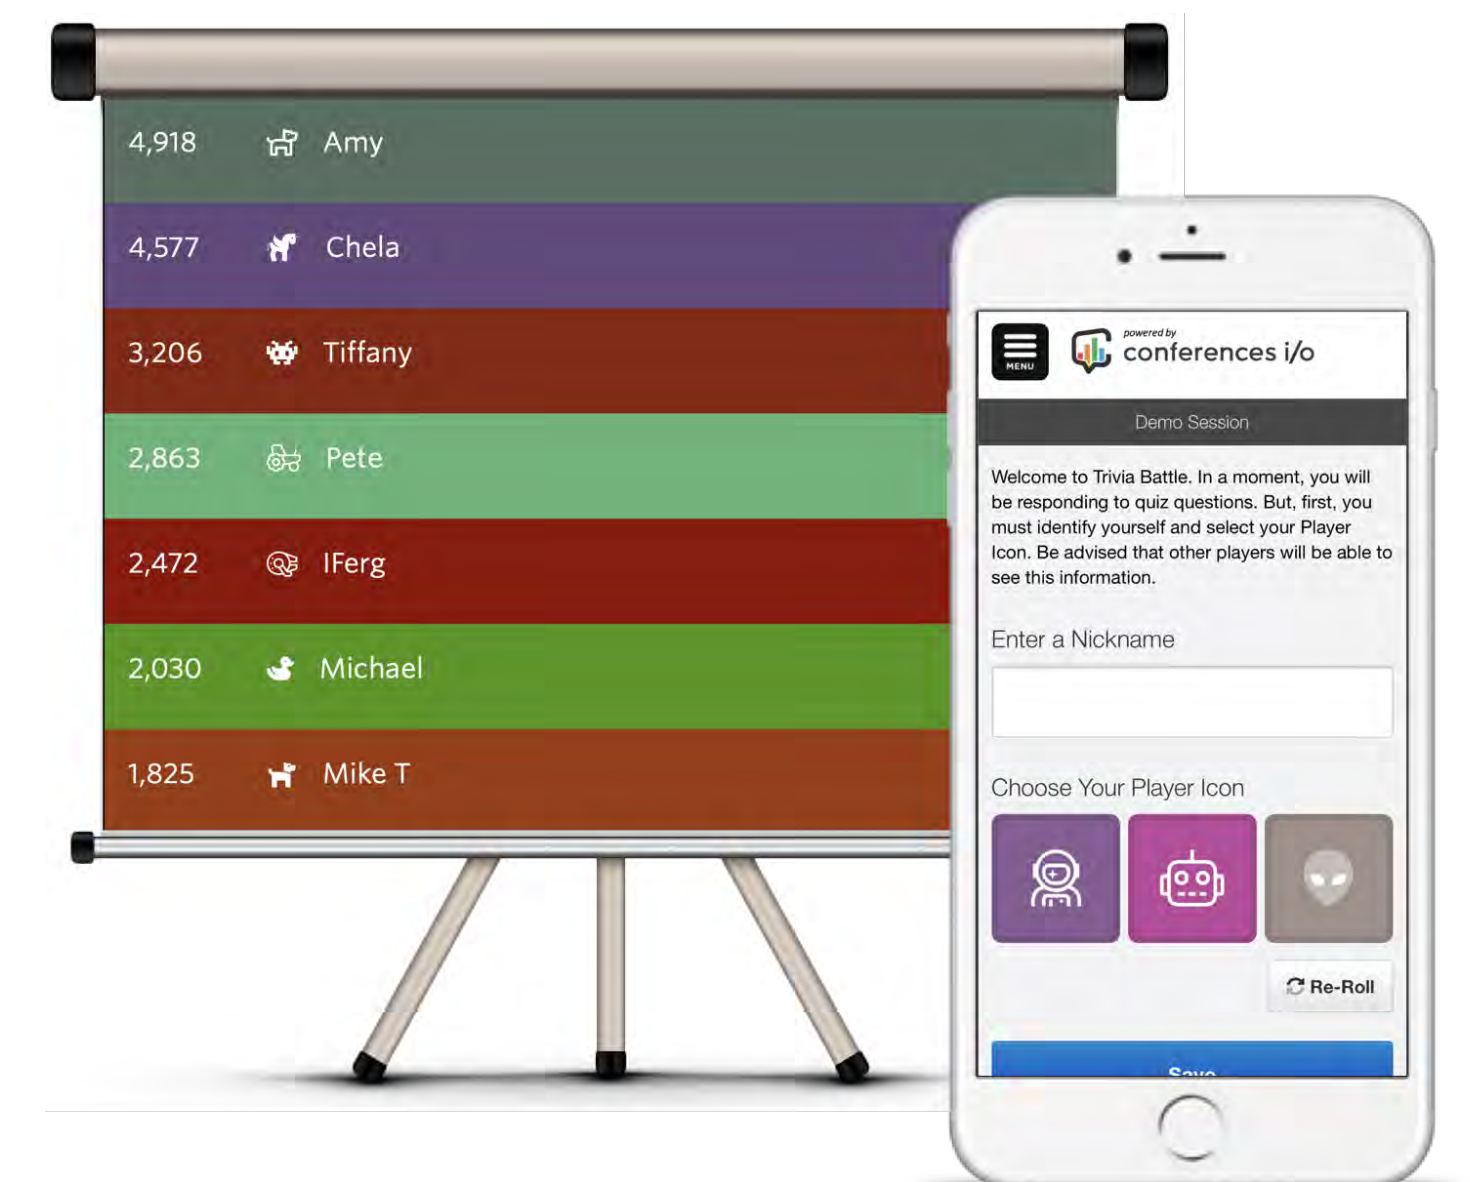

The smartphone screen shows the 'conferences i/o' app. It features a 'Social Q&A' section with a green header and an 'Ask' button. Below the header, it says 'Vote by clicking / tapping the arrow'. A list of questions is displayed, each with an up-vote arrow and a count. The question 'How can we improve attendee engagement?' is highlighted with a callout bubble showing its count of 19. Other questions visible include 'Can we use this in concurrent sessions?' (21 votes), 'Are questions submitted anonymously?' (16 votes), 'Can this be used for pre-meeting Q&A?' (14 votes), and 'Will this increase our evaluation response rates?' (2 votes).

Have Some Friendly Competition with the Games

- ✓ Competitive, quiz-style games
- ✓ Attendees compete as teams or individuals
- ✓ Display a real-time scoreboard
- ✓ Customize the scoring format to your preference

Trivia (Individual) Battle

Session Evaluations Provide Real Time Feedback for EVERY Session

Attendees can complete evaluation surveys in real-time, resulting in higher response rates and more accurate data compared to post event email surveys.

Have sessions with multiple presenters? No problem. Our functionality allows each presenter to be rated separately without any additional work.

After the event you can download a comprehensive evaluation report that includes data from all of your sessions in a convenient format for analysis.
